In Re Application of:

ASF BROADCASTING CORP.

File No. BPH-911230

Commission's action in John M. Salov, FCC 92-565, released January 8, 1993, in which the Commission upheld the deletion of an allotment, ORA argues that the allotment in this instance need not be deleted because fully spaced sites are available. It is obvious that ORA cannot tell the difference between apples and oranges.

The allotment to Westerville is clearly fully spaced. Otherwise, all applications would necessarily be dismissed in accordance with the Salov holding. ASF, and others, in filing applications for this fully spaced allotment, specified a site which does not fully meet the requirements of Section 73.207 as
